WHISTLEBLOWER POLICY

I. Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to establish procedures for (a) the receipt, retention, and treatment of complaints received by Copper Mountain Mining Corporation (the “Company”) regarding accounting, internal accounting controls, auditing matters or violations to the Company’s Code of Business Conduct and Ethics; and (b) the submission by employees of the Company, on a confidential and anonymous basis, of concerns regarding questionable accounting, auditing matters or violations to the Company’s Code of Business Conduct and Ethics.

The purpose of this policy is also to state clearly and unequivocally that the Company prohibits discrimination, harassment and/or retaliation against any employee, director or officer who (i) reports complaints to the Audit Committee regarding accounting, internal controls, auditing matters or violations of the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics or (ii) provides information or otherwise assists in an investigation or proceeding regarding any conduct which he or she reasonably believes to be a violation of employment or labour laws; securities laws (including the rules or regulations of the British Columbia Securities Commission (the “BCSC”), securities regulatory authorities in other provinces of Canada and the rules of the Toronto Stock Exchange laws regarding fraud or the commission or possible commission of a criminal offence. Everyone at the Company is responsible for ensuring that the workplace is free from all forms of discrimination, harassment and retaliation prohibited by this policy. No employee, director or officer of the Company has the authority to engage in any conduct prohibited by this policy.

This policy protects:

1. any employee, director or officer who legitimately and in good faith discloses an alleged violation of employment or labour laws, securities laws, laws regarding fraud or the commission or possible commission of a criminal offense, by any person with supervisory authority over the employee, director or officer, or any other person working for the Company who has the authority to investigate, discover or terminate conduct prohibited by this policy;

Any employee who legitimately and in good faith provides information, causes information to be provided, or otherwise assists in an investigation regarding any conduct which the employee reasonably believes constitutes fraud when the information or assistance is provided to or the investigation is conducted by law enforcement, regulatory authorities, a legislature, or the Company; or
4. Any employee who in good faith submits any complaint to the Audit Committee, regarding financial statements disclosures, accounting, internal accounting controls, auditing matters or violations to the Company's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics in accordance with the procedures set out herein.

If an employee, director or officer legitimately and in good faith engages in any of the activities listed above, the Company will not discharge, demote, suspend, threaten, harass or otherwise discriminate or retaliate against him or her in the terms or conditions of employment because of that activity. However, since such allegation of impropriety may result in serious personal repercussions for the target person or entity, the employee, director or officer making the allegation of impropriety should have reasonable and probable grounds before reporting such impropriety and should undertake such reporting in good faith, for the best interests of the Company and not for personal gain or motivation.
